→ French Discoveries: Language Stays for Juniors

■ Presentation

A tailor-made program combining language courses and discovery activities.

■ Public

Groups of high school/middle school pupils accompanied by a teacher.

■ Objectives and pedagogical content

Our language classes are based around various activities and exciting projects. We focus mainly on verbal communication and students benefit from being immersed in the country and language. The stay allows each pupil to boost their confidence and to communicate better in French.

The activities we offer allow pupils to explore our local environment through active and fun situations. You can choose from a wide range of activities to suit your needs and tastes.

Number of hours :

25 hours including 15 hours of class per week and discovery activities

On-site learning

Dates :

Please contact us so we can fit the needs of your group

Fees per student per week :

500€* (Includes classes, activities, meals, and accommodation. Does not include weekend trips.)

* This price is an estimation and may vary according to the activities chosen and number of participants

Some examples of activities : a treasure hunt to discover the historical city center, an interactive visit of the house where Victor Hugo was born, a discovery of the Citadelle fortress and museum, a visit to the house where Louis Pasteur lived in Arbois, a discovery of the Saline Royale in Arc et Senans (UNESCO site), or even a visit to a cheese or chocolate maker. It may also be possible to meet French school pupils for a cross-cultural experience.

Please specify if you would like this option during enrollment (the offer is only possible during term time).

Weekend trips

Let us know if you would like us to book you a trip with a guide during the weekend : Paris, Lyon, Strasbourg, Geneva, Burgundy or local Franche-Comté, etc.

Students stay with a host family which provides half board accommodation for a fully immersive experience.
